

Finance, HR, & Planning Transformation for Nonprofit

Focus on Your Philanthropic Mission with Digital Transformation

In the modern world, the challenge of achieving your nonprofit organization's purpose should not be in struggling with slow, outdated technological processes but in providing staff and volunteers with the administrative systems to pursue your mission. Organizations need to remain agile by making data-driven business decisions and proactively preparing funders for change. As the longest tenured Workday service partner in the nonprofit industry, Collaborative Solutions has the expertise trusted by organizations to help transform their operations.

With a single Finance, HR, and Planning cloud platform, nonprofit organizations gain complete visibility into workforce and operations, providing data-backed leadership that complements your organization's purpose and offers adaptability for today's changing world.

We have had a great experience partnering with Collaborative during our Workday implementation. They have been thorough, thoughtful, flexible and available during the entire process helping the Met team accomplish our goals. Their guidance and willingness to help were a large factor in our success. We are very grateful for their support during this project.
