Making data-driven strategic decisions is a key component in elevating the success of your company. With Workday as your modern finance and HR cloud solution, you have access to thousands of data points. What you do with them can mean the difference between status quo and progress. As your data continues to grow, the access, analysis, and distribution of the data can be challenging.

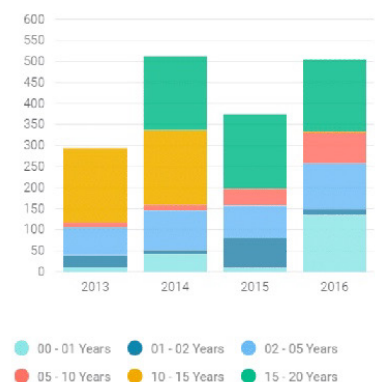

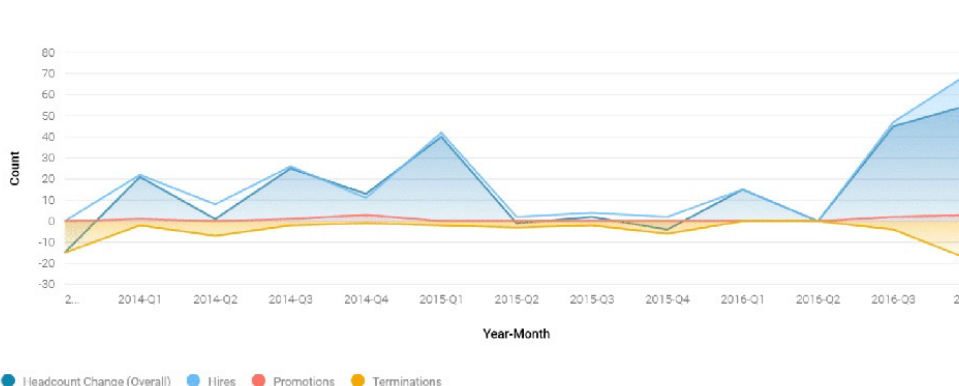

SO, HOW DO YOU MANAGE THOUSANDS OF DATA POINTS EFFECTIVELY?

Collaborative Solutions has developed convenient Advanced Report Dashboards & Analytics to make sense of your ever-growing data, such as our Executive Dashboards specifically tailored to leadership. These packaged reports allow for quick deployment of targeted dashboards and scorecards, providing deeper insight into your business.

Taking advantage of our experience with hundreds of customers across the entire Workday suite, we'll help you define the most common and effective sets of information to support your business strategy. The Advanced Report Dashboards & Analytics were built on three key principles:
